This is the design which won the competition for the new section logo. However, at present it is a proposed design, subject to ratification by head office. Watch this space.

Issue 118 Spring 2020

TrevMASters' Voice, March 2020

I have never had to write against such a sombre backdrop. This is my second version as my original one has been drastically overtaken by the coronavirus pandemic and rendered out of date. I sincerely hope that none of you has contracted the virus and that you will all remain in good health once this health scare has receded.

Covid-19, of course, isn't the only major problem many have had to contend with. The seemingly never-ending storms battered this country for weeks and left many homes and businesses flooded. And, further afield, ongoing wars continue bringing death and destruction to huge numbers of innocent civilians.

Compared with such global disasters any concerns about our Walking and Cycling Section pale into insignificance. Yes, it is disappointing that all our meets and meetings for the foreseeable future are put on hold, but I know members are already finding ways of keeping in touch with each other.

We have been concerned for some while as to whether our Northern Area will be able to survive, but the most recent information is that members are now offering to be put forward to join their committee. Meanwhile your council has been looking to ways of ensuring we can still provide for as much of the country as possible and this may well include more centralised responsibility for organisation. But this would clearly have to rely upon serious contributions from members on Area levels to provide local knowledge and expertise.

It is worth noting that all of the Special Interest Sections who operate as national groups without any Areas and Area committees chose to do so because Areas were struggling to maintain committees; and all say they are functioning now without local committees as such.

Some positive information! Our membership is increasing. The number of new members this year compared with last year is significantly higher. It's possibly too early to identify reasons, but it's looking increasingly as if our change of name may be having the desired effect. Certainly we have met new faces on the one and only meet to have been held so far, Wessex at Hereford, who say it was our name that attracted them! The Club has made real efforts to support us with this change; publicising it prominently in Camping and Caravanning and Out and About and contributing substantially to our search for a new logo. Many thanks to the many members who sent in suggested designs. Council has made its choice and we look forward to the Club ratifying what I feel will be a memorable logo.

Again, I hope you all survive over the ensuing frustrating and worrying months and that it won't be too long before we can all be meeting up again.

Trev Masters.

Thank you all.

Hope 2020 will be a good year for you
all. June

Wessex recently lost two of our stalwarts. For many years Brian Martin had led walks and stewarded for Wessex in company with his wife June and their dogs, and was 'life and soul of the party' on many occasions. He was full of life, and always more than willing to lead a walk, lend a hand or give advice stemming from his vast knowledge of the areas we walked in. Many of his friends attended the funeral and gave support and condolences to June, who really appreciated this and sends the message shown here.

Sandra Bishop, wife of our Vice President, Terry, has died. Sandra and Terry were the founding members of the group that eventually became the Section's Wessex Area. In doing so they showed immense enthusiasm, patience and determination by persisting in holding meets even though in the early days numbers of attenders were very small. Their persistence paid off and over the years hundreds of us have had real grounds to be grateful to them.

Sadly, Sandra had suffered from worsening health for many years with Terry acting as her hugely supportive carer. His commitment to our Section, however, has never been in doubt and his hope is that he will soon be able to get the van out and join us.

Chesterfield

After reading the sad news of the passing of Lord Baden Powell recently, I was reminded of the time a few years ago when he attended the unveiling of a blue plaque in Chesterfield. This commemorates the birthplace of his grandmother, Lady Olave Baden Powell, wife of Scouting and Guiding's founder and Chief Guide for many years. She was born in Chesterfield, however the house has long since gone but the plaque has been placed at the approximate site just below Chesterfield Town Hall. Her grandson was very pleased to attend the unveiling ceremony and my job after the event was to serve tea at Guide Headquarters while husband Roger guarded 'Jam Roll' – the Rolls Royce purchased for Lord Baden Powell by members attending the Jamboree to celebrate 21 years of Scouting in 1929. Not sure what Roger would have done if anyone had attempted to steal it! If you attend the Section AGM at Barlow and are interested in this plaque, the town is just a bus ride away from the Meet. Don't forget there is also the famous 'Crooked Spire' church – at certain times you can go up the winding staircase onto the balcony below the spire for a fabulous view (at present safety work is being carried out but hopefully it will be completed by the end of April). There is a charge for this. There is a free museum nearby as well as the Revolution House at Old Whittington – this was where the plot was hatched to overthrow James II and bring over William and Mary to rule the country. The Earl of Devonshire was one of the main instigators of the plot – but there's another story – the Devonshire's and Chatsworth (Peakland has a Meet at Chatsworth in September (booking essential)). Or go bargain hunting on Chesterfield Market every Monday, Friday or Saturday. Get a taste of history at Chesterfield Museum or spend an evening at the Theatre. There is also Hardwick Hall, Bolsover Castle, Renishaw Hall and Gardens not too far away.

U3A Project Walks

My branch of the U3a, Princes Risborough in Buckinghamshire, run a very active walking group. Each month we have a choice of 4 walks of varying distances. However the highlight and fifth walk is the Project walk, which has been running for about the last 10 years. So far we have completed the Thames Path from source to the Thames Barrier. The Chiltern Way, The Grand Union Canal from Paddington Basin to Birmingham and last November we completed The Shakespeare Way from Stratford upon Avon to The Globe Theatre in London,

These walks take place every month from about March through to November. The distances each month are dictated by where we can arrange or pick up transport. Transport consists of cars, hire of minibuses, buses and trains. The logistics being worked out by our very diligent leader, who also factors in a pub stop either during or at the end of the days walking. There is no obligation to complete all the legs of the walk, however everyone is very keen to do as many as possible and we are normally around 16 in number.

A highlight after the finish is to have a celebration meal with slide show of photos taken on route and as each project walk takes place over 2 years it is great to look back and remember events (some hilarious) that had taken place. (We had such an event to wrap up the Shakespeare Way last evening - it was great fun).

Our next Project Walk is to be The Capital Ring around London starting in February this year. This will be a completely different style of walking for us, necessitating in train and bus travel to the starting point each time.

Although there will be pavement walking, the route does go through many rural areas. As the mileage this time is only around 75 miles we will complete the walk within 2020.

That moment when you're worried about

Invoking the wrath of God?

During our October meet at the Devizes club site, we walked along the canal up into Devizes. There is the usual wealth of normal and independent shops, an indoor Market Hall and a large Market square. On the Market Cross in the Market square is a large metal tablet telling a cautionary tale of a woman who dropped dead Devizes Market Place in the 18th Century. This plaque is shown opposite, and tells the whole story.

A few years later Devizes Corporation put up a painted board in the Market Place detailing the story to “deter all Persons from calling down the Vengeance of God or taking His holy Name in Vain”. Later this was replaced with a stone tablet, which in 1788 was affixed to the sign of the Bear Inn and is now in the Wiltshire Heritage Museum in Long Street. In 1814 the present Market Cross, pictured here, was erected by Viscount Sidmouth and the Corporation added the story to the inscription. They could not resist moralising on this and added the phrase that she fell dead ‘having the Money clutched in her Hand’. This does not appear anywhere in the contemporary accounts of the mid 18th century. So poor Ruth Pierce has been branded as an embezzler when she might have been innocent all the time and the other women could have been lying. It is now considered likely that she died of a heart attack or stroke amid the flow of accusations.

Book Corner

Factfulness, by Hans Rosling:

Ten Reasons We're Wrong About The World - And Why Things Are Better Than You Think.

I found this to be a most interesting book — the basic premise is to always check the facts about whatever troubles or interests you, and to not accept a singular point of view but to look for other information to support or disprove your perception of what the situation is. Many examples are given in the book, and really make you stop and think both about your own perceptions and what we are fed through the media of all sorts. It would appear that most of our knowledge of the world tends to stop being improved or added to when we finish our education, and therefore our ideas and conclusions about any given thing might be based upon information that is actually many years out of date.

WACS Membership

As of the 3rd of March 2020 the total number of individual members is 1499. This includes 7 overseas, 4 club vice-presidents, 2 press and 37 youth. At the time of our name change the total figure stood at 1269, so there has been an overall increase of 230 since October 1st.

So as you can see the name change has had a positive effect on our overall membership. On March 1st, 2018 it was 1157, March 1st 2019, 1230 and now 1499 which is quite an increase. I know it was a controversial step to take to change the name of the section but it appears so far to have been the right one.

We have actually had 359 new joiners since January 1st this year, which is mainly down to the efforts of club members' work on the stands at the various shows held around the country. We always lose a few each month due to people not renewing their membership for various reasons, but despite that our overall numbers are increasing. We now need the new members to come out and camp with us and help take the section forward in the future.

Les Morton, Membership Secretary

In light of the recent weather, I think this is a valid point

Wainwright Sitting Stone
 Alfred Wainwright described Ullswater as "that loveliest of lakes, curving gracefully into the far distance". The Sitting Stone, carved with Wainwright's words, invites walkers to pause, sit a while and take in the beautiful form of this "loveliest of lakes".
 The Sitting Stone's creator is Jimmy Reynolds, a local sculptor and letter-carver (jamesreynoldssculpture.co.uk).

The Wainwright Sitting Stone is part of the Ullswater Way Heritage Trail, created by the Friends of the Ullswater Way to highlight the social and cultural heritage of the Ullswater Valley.

Emergency during a winter walk in Portugal!

The day started off so well, sunny and a lovely day for a walk in the Tomar forest park. The afternoon turned out to be super stressful and we had to call the emergency services to rescue Tilly. She had tumbled down the side of the old aqueduct reservoir, fortunately empty of water and couldn't be reached as it was 3/4 metres deep. Within the hour we had a fire engine , 2 police motorcyclists and a police car arrive on the scene. Not a word of English spoken by any of them and our very limited Portuguese didn't help but a passerby saved the day and translated. Bombiero shinned down the ladder with treats in hand and Tilly leapt into his arms. No charge for the rescue which we were fully expecting. Superb service. She's now being pampered on the sofa, a miracle no damage done.

Some of us stayed local—this is a mud-free Kingley Vale in West Sussex on a gray day!

But we also ventured into the cold—this was on a walk in the Vanoise National Park in France over Christmas

The Executive Committee took the decision this morning to cancel with immediate effect all Region, District Association, National Section and Section area activity. This includes AGMs, any form of meeting or gathering, and all Meets.

The Executive Committee felt that this was the responsible and right thing to do. Their view was that this supported the government's guidance on distancing and non-essential contact, and importantly protects members and relieves them from responsibilities that they may not currently be comfortable to carry out.

The Executive Committee will contact you when they feel it is appropriate to lift this temporary measure.
